MINISTRY OF LABOUR, EMPLOYMENT & REHABILITATION(Department of Labour & Employment)

New Delhi, the 18th July 1967

G.S.R. 1128.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 15, read with clause (b) of section 2, of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 (20 of 1946), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Central Rules, 1946, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (1) of the said section 15, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Central (Amendment) Rules, 1967.

2. In Schedule I of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Central Rules, 1946, in standing order 14,—

(i) for clauses (4) and (5), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(4) (a) Where a disciplinary proceeding against a workman is contemplated or is pending or where criminal proceedings against him in respect of any offence are under investigation or trial and the employer is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable to place the workman under suspension, he may, by order in writing, suspend him with effect from such date as may be specified in the order. A statement setting out in detail the reasons for such suspension shall be supplied to the workman within a week from the date of suspension.

(b) A workman who is placed under suspension under clause (a) shall, during the period of such suspension, be paid a subsistence allowance at the following rates, namely:—

(i) Where the enquiry contemplated or pending is departmental, the subsistence allowance shall, for the first ninety days from the date of suspension be equal to one-half of the basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances to which the workman would have been entitled if he were on leave with wages. If the departmental enquiry gets prolonged and the workman continues to be under suspension for a period exceeding ninety days, the subsistence allowance shall for such period be equal to three-fourths of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances:

Provided that where such enquiry is prolonged beyond a period of ninety days for reasons directly attributable to the workman, the subsistence allowance shall, for the period exceeding ninety days be reduced to one-fourth of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances.

(ii) Where the enquiry is by an outside agency or, as the case may be, where criminal proceedings against the workman are under investigation or trial, the subsistence allowance shall, for the first one hundred and eighty days from the date of suspension, be equal to one-half of his basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances to which the workman would have been entitled to if he were on leave. If such enquiry or criminal proceedings gets prolonged and the workman continues to be under suspension for a period exceeding one hundred and eighty days, the subsistence allowance shall for such period be equal to three-fourths of such wages:

Provided that where such enquiry or criminal proceedings is prolonged beyond a period of one hundred and eighty days for reasons directly attributable to the workman, the subsistence allowance shall, for the period exceeding one hundred and eighty days, be reduced to one fourth of such wages.

(c) If on the conclusion of the inquiry or, as the case may be, of the criminal proceedings, the workman has been found guilty of the charges framed against him and it is considered, after giving the workman concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed, that an order of dismissal or suspension or fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank would meet the ends of justice, the employer shall pass an order accordingly:

Provided that when an order of dismissal is passed under this clause, the workman shall be deemed to have been absent from duty during the period of suspension and shall not be entitled to any remuneration for such period, and the subsistence allowance already paid to him shall not be recovered.

Provided further that where the period between the date on which the workman was suspended from duty pending the inquiry or investigation or trial and the date on which an order of suspension was passed under this clause exceeds four days, the workman shall be deemed to have been suspended only for four days or for such shorter period as is specified in the said order of suspension and for the remaining period he shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period:

Provided also that where an order imposing fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank is passed under this clause, the workman shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period:

Provided also that in the case of a workman to whom the provisions of clause (2) of article 311 of the Constitution apply, the provisions of that article shall be complied with.

(d) If on the conclusion of the inquiry, or as the case may, of the criminal proceedings, the workman has been found to be not guilty of any of the charges framed against him, he shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been placed under suspension, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period.

(e) The payment of subsistence allowance under this standing order shall be subject to the workman concerned not taking up any employment during the period of suspension."

(ii) Clause (6) shall be renumbered as clause (5), thereof.

CENTRAL EXCISES

New Delhi, the 29th July 1967

G.S.R. 1145.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (1) of rule 8 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 and in relaxation of the provisions of rule 51-A of the said Rules, the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendment in the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) No. 6/64-Central Excises, dated the 25th January, 1964, namely:—

In the said notification, in clause (i) and (ii) of the second proviso, for the words "one per cent", the words "a half of one per cent" shall be substituted.

[No. 164/67-CE/No. F. 24/3/65-CX.I.]

G.S.R. 1146.— In exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Central Excise Rules, 1944, namely:—

(1) These rules may be called the Central Excise (Twentieth Amendment) Rules, 1967.

(2) In the Central Excise Rules, 1944, in Chapter V, in section F. Refunds, after rule 100, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

"100-A. Refund of duty on time-expired or defective patent or proprietary medicines which are destroyed under excise supervision.

The Collector may grant refund of the duty paid on patent or proprietary medicines which have become unfit for consumption either due to expiry of their period of potency or due to manufacturing defects:

Provided that—

- (1) such medicines are returned to the factory where they were manufactured within three months of the expiry of their period of potency or, in the case of medicines having manufacturing defects, within one year of the date of payment of duty, or within such further period or periods not exceeding one year in the aggregate as the Collector may, on sufficient cause being shown permit in any particular case;
- (2) at least forty-eight hours' notice or, in exceptional circumstances beyond the control of the manufacturer, a shorter notice, of the re-entry of the medicines into the factory is given to the proper officer before the goods are received into the factory; and if such officer is not on duty at the time the medicines are received into the factory, the manufacturer shall store the medicines separately and report full details thereof as soon as may be to such officer;
- (3) the medicines shall be presented to the proper officer for inspection, and if necessary, for taking samples;
- (4) the majority of the unit or smallest packages, as the case may be, meant for retail sale are intact and unopened, and in the case of opened packages, the medicines are identified to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Central Excise with reference to marking on individual medicines or containers and other collateral evidence, if any;
- (5) the identity of the medicines and the amount of the duty paid shall be established to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Central Excise;
- (6) the amount of refund payable on the medicines is not less than five rupees;
- (7) the manufacturer maintain an account showing therein the particulars of the medicines received, marks and numbers thereon, quantity, duty paid and the number and the date of the document on which duty was paid and such other particulars as the Collector may require;
- (8) such medicines shall be destroyed under the supervision of the Superintendent of Central Excise;
- (9) the total value of such medicines in respect of which a refund is claimed under this rule in any calendar month shall not exceed—
 - (i) a half of one per cent. of the value of the duty-paid clearances made during the preceding calendar month, or
 - (ii) where no such clearance has been made during the preceding calendar month, a half of one per cent. of the average value of the duty-paid clearances made during the preceding twelve calendar months, of all the patent or on proprietary medicines;
- (10) the application for refund shall be presented by the manufacturer to the proper officer within one month of the destruction of such medicines."

MINISTRY OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND COMPANY AFFAIRS(Department of Industrial Development)

New Delhi, the 24th July 1967

G.S.R. 1181.—30/IDRA/67.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 30 of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (65 of 1951), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required under sub-section (1) of section 30 of the Act, namely:—

THE INVESTIGATION OF INDUSTRIAL UNDERTAKINGS (PROCEDURE) RULES, 1967.

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Investigation of Industrial Undertakings (Procedure) Rules, 1967.
2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the investigation in respect of any schedule industry, or industrial undertaking or undertakings referred to in section 15 of the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (65 of 1951).
3. Definitions.—In these rules,—
 - (a) "Act" means the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (65 of 1951);
 - (b) "Investigator" means the person or body of persons appointed by the Central Government for the purpose of making any investigation under section 15 of the Act;

(c) "investigation" means the investigation referred to in section 15 of the Act.

4. Procedure to be followed in making an investigation.—(1) In making an investigation, the Investigator shall, as far as practicable, follow the procedure set out below, namely:—

(a) Where the investigation is ordered under all or any of the sub-clauses (i) to (iii) of clause (a) of section 15 of the Act, the Investigator shall, for the purpose of making a comparative study of the rate of production, collect facts and figures relating to the three years immediately preceding the year in which the investigation is so ordered, of the volume of production, the quality and the price of any article or class of articles relatable to the concerned scheduled industry or manufactured or produced in the concerned undertaking or undertakings, as the case may be.

(b) Where the investigation is ordered under sub-clause (iv) of the said clause (a), the Investigator shall endeavour to find out the supply and demand position of the resources of national importance which are utilised in the scheduled industry, undertaking or undertakings, as the case may be, and also see whether any other resources could not be utilised in the scheduled industry, industrial undertaking or undertakings as a substitute.

(c) Where the investigation has been ordered under clause (b) of the said section, the Investigator shall, in the course of the investigation, inter alia, examine—

- (i) the financial position of the undertaking and see whether it has been prompt in making payments of taxes and discharging its other liabilities;
- (ii) the composition of the management of the industrial undertaking and the relations thereof with labour;
- (iii) the efforts made by the industrial undertaking to augment the supply of necessary raw materials;
- (iv) the steps taken by the industrial undertaking to improve the quality or quantity of any article manufactured or produced in the undertaking.
- (v) any other matter which the Investigator considers relevant or necessary for the purpose.

(2) The Investigator may, before commencing the investigation, call upon the Management of the undertaking or undertakings, the employees of such undertaking or undertakings, and such other persons as are concerned with the investigation to furnish to the Investigator written statements relating to the affairs of the scheduled industry, industrial undertaking or undertakings, as the case may be.

(3) Every written statement referred to in sub-rule (2) shall be signed by the person furnishing it.

(4) In support of the facts and figures, if any, collected in pursuance of sub-rule (1), the Investigator may, to the extent he considers it necessary, take evidence in writing (either in the form of oral testimony or affidavits) from persons connected with the scheduled industry, undertaking or undertakings concerned, whose evidence is, in his opinion, relevant for the purpose of the investigation.

5. Opportunity for hearing.—The Investigator shall, before completion of his investigation give the Management and the employees of the undertaking or undertakings in respect of which the investigation is ordered, reasonable opportunity of being heard including opportunity to adduce any evidence.

6. Submission of report.—(1) The Investigator shall, after completing the investigation, submit a report to the Central Government within the period specified therefor.

(2) In making the report referred to in sub-rule (1), the Investigator shall state—
